Cap. 9.

PART I

EXPLOSIVES

Licence for the introduction of explosives into Malta. Conditions. Amended by: VIII. 2008.3.	3. (1) No person shall introduce into Malta gunpowder or other explosives or establish or keep any gunpowder factory or firework factory or any other factory in which explosive powders or other explosives are manufactured, without a licence from the Commissioner of Police. Such licence shall not be granted unless the necessary precautions for protecting life and property have been taken.
Manufacture of explosives.	(2) No person shall manufacture gunpowder or carry out any process of such manufacture except at a gunpowder factory licensed under this Ordinance, nor shall any person manufacture fireworks, or explosive powders or other explosives except at a firework factory, or other factory for the manufacture of explosive powders, or other explosives, licensed under this Ordinance:

Provided that nothing in this article shall apply to the making of a small quantity of gunpowder or other explosives for the purpose of chemical experiment, and not for other use or for sale:

Provided further that upon a reasonable suspicion that a serious breach of the provisions of this Ordinance has occurred, the Commissioner of Police shall have the right to close a gunpowder factory or any other similar factory for a period not exceeding two weeks, so however that if at any time criminal proceedings are commenced relating to such factory for the breach of any provision of this Ordinance, the court may, pending the proceedings, of its own motion or at the request of the prosecution, order such factory to be closed until the termination of the proceedings by a final judgment.

4. The following precautions shall be required to be observed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Police in every case in which a gunpowder factory or other similar factory is established:

- (a) that the factory shall be at a distance of not less than one hundred and eighty-three metres from -
 - (i) any inhabited place;
 - (ii) any street which may be used regularly for the passage of motor vehicles; or
 - (iii) any other street within one hundred and eighty-three metres of which it would not be advisable, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Police, after consultation with the Director of Public Works, to establish such a factory;
- (b) that the factory shall be surrounded by a wall or other solid fence of a height of not less than four metres and provided with an efficient lightning conductor;
- (c) that there shall be a magazine for the storage of gunpowder or other explosives at a sufficient distance from the factory buildings;
- (d) that separate buildings at a convenient distance from each other shall be used for each process of manufacture;
- (e) that no work shall be done at night or by artificial light or during a thunderstorm or when the state of the weather is such as to give reason to believe that a thunderstorm is imminent;
- (f) that any gunpowder or other explosives which are manufactured shall be removed to the magazine within twenty-four hours.

Precautions for the establishment of gunpowder factories or similar factories.
Amended by:
IV. 1920.3;
XL. 1940.4(1);
XVIII. 1960.2.

Quantity of explosives allowed.
Amended by:
III. 2002.160.

5. No gunpowder or other explosive shall be kept in the premises in respect of which a licence under article 3 has been granted, in a greater quantity than is specified in the licence; such quantity shall in no case exceed that quantity as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Minister responsible for the police.

Dynamite, gun-cotton, fulminates, etc.
Amended by:
IV. 1920.4;
XXXV. 1949.2;
XXVII. 1955.2.

6. (1) No quantity of dynamite, gun-cotton, fulminate of mercury or other fulminates, picrates, substances having nitroglycerine as their principal component part, or other substances which, when mixed together or alone, may produce effects similar to those produced by dynamite or any of the substances mentioned in article 2, shall be used, sent, or delivered by the manufacturers or retailers except to public authorities, or to persons authorised by a permit signed by the Commissioner of Police to make purchases thereof in such quantities as are prescribed in the permit.

(2) In any such case, the manufacturer or retailer shall, at the time of the sale or delivery, state on the permit the quality and the quantity of the substances sold or delivered, and shall date and sign such statement.

Cap. 10.

(3) Persons holding a licence from the Police under article 205 of the Code of Police Laws to carry a shotgun for the purpose of pursuing or killing game may purchase sporting cartridges and sporting powder for filling cartridges for the said shotgun from retailers on presentation of the above-mentioned licence, and, in such cases, the retailer shall enter, date and sign the statement required by subarticle (2) on the reverse of the licence, and no other permit shall be required for such sale or purchase.

Issue of permit.
Amended by:
XXXV. 1949.2.

7. (1) The permit mentioned in the last preceding article shall not be granted unless the person applying for the same proves that he requires to use explosives in the exercise of his profession, art or trade.

(2) Any person to whom explosives are sold or delivered by virtue of the said permit shall take all due precaution for preventing other persons from having access to such explosives, and shall not sell, transfer, or deliver such explosives, without a licence from the Police.

Entries in register.

8. (1) Manufacturers of or dealers in the substances mentioned in article 3 shall enter in a register the quantity and nature of the explosives which they manufacture, acquire or sell, and the name, surname, occupation, nationality, and place of residence of and other particulars relating to the persons to whom the sale or the delivery is made.

Pages of register to be numbered and signed by Police.

(2) The register shall, before any entry is made therein, be numbered and signed on each page by the Police, who shall also note on the last page the number of pages which the register contains.

Powers of Police.

(3) The said register shall, at all times, be open to inspection by the Police who shall also have the power to inspect the establishments and the magazines wherein explosives are stored in order to ascertain whether the amount shown by the entries in the register corresponds to the amount of explosive so stored.

9. (1) No person shall keep for sale, or store gunpowder or explosives without a licence from the Commissioner of Police.

No sale or storage of gunpowder or explosives is permitted without licence.
Amended by:
IV: 1920.5.

(2) Such licence shall be granted subject to the condition that the seller shall report to the Police any sale made by him as well as the name and address of the purchaser.

10. (1) Such licence shall be valid only for the person named in the licence and in respect of the place appointed therein.

Validity of licence.
Amended by:
XXXV: 1949.3.

(2) The amount of gunpowder and the amount and nature of the explosives that may be kept in the place appointed in the licence shall be specified in the licence.

11. (1) With the exception of gunpowder, no explosives containing nitroglycerine, picrates, fulminates, chlorate of potash or similar explosives, or explosives the composition of which is not known or is not clearly determined, shall be kept in shops licensed for the retail of explosives.

Shops for the retail of explosives.
Amended by:
IV: 1920.6.

(2) Nothing in this article shall affect the provisions of article 14.

12. (1) The Commissioner of Police shall not grant a licence for the keeping of more than seven kilogrammes of gunpowder in shops in inhabited places, if the gunpowder is kept loose in boxes, bags or barrels, or is contained in closed packages, or cardboard boxes or similar receptacles; but he may grant a licence for the keeping of gunpowder in quantities up to twenty-three kilogrammes, if the gunpowder is kept completely closed in metal cases or other receptacles equally suitable for its keeping, provided that the gunpowder be kept in detached premises not used as a dwelling-house, and be, if practicable, distributed in lots in different parts of the premises.

Shops for the sale of gunpowder in inhabited places.
Amended by:
IV: 1920.7.

(2) It shall be in the discretion of the Commissioner of Police to determine in respect of which shops the licence may be granted.

13. In the case of shops not situate in an inhabited place the Commissioner of Police may grant a licence for the keeping of double the quantities mentioned in the last preceding article.

Shops not situated in inhabited places.

14. The Commissioner of Police may authorize the storage of loaded cartridges containing not more than twelve kilogrammes, net weight, of explosive substances in retail shops situate in an inhabited place, and not more than twenty-three kilogrammes in retail shops not situate in an inhabited place.

Loaded cartridges.

15. Percussion caps and empty cartridge cases with caps and fuses may be kept in any place without any restriction as to quantity; but if gunpowder or other explosives be also stored in the premises, dealers shall keep the percussion caps, empty cartridge cases and fuses separate therefrom, by means of partitions.

Percussion caps, empty cartridge cases with caps and fuses.

Licence to keep or remove explosives.
Amended by:
IV. 1920.8;
XL. 1940.4 (2).

16. No person shall, without a licence from the Police, keep in any place under his control, or convey from one place to another on his account or on account of any other person, gunpowder or other explosives in quantities exceeding five kilogrammes:

Provided that where the place for the keeping of gunpowder or other explosives is a dwelling-house, a licence shall be required for quantities exceeding one and one-half kilogrammes in weight and such licence shall not be granted unless the dwelling-house is a detached dwelling-house and situated at a safe distance from any other inhabited place and is itself either not inhabited by any person or inhabited only by the family of the applicant:

Provided also that in the case of dynamite and other substances, the principal component part of which is nitroglycerine, fulminates or chlorate of potash, a licence shall always be required for keeping or conveying any quantity thereof, however small.

Keeping of explosives.

17. Explosives or very inflammable substances shall in all cases be kept in fire-proof receptacles and at a safe distance from gunpowder or from any receptacle in which gunpowder is kept.

Gunpowder how kept.

18. All gunpowder exceeding five hundred grammes in weight shall be kept in a substantial case, bag, canister or other receptacle made and closed so as to prevent the gunpowder from escaping.

Sale of gunpowder in street or to children prohibited.
Amended by:
IV. 1920.9.

19. No person shall sell or expose for sale gunpowder or other explosives in any street, nor shall any person sell or give gunpowder or other explosives to any child apparently under the age of eighteen.

Sale of gunpowder to be in closed packages labelled.

20. No person shall sell gunpowder exceeding five hundred grammes in weight, except in a substantial case, bag, canister or other receptacle made and closed so as to prevent the gunpowder from escaping, and with the words "Gunpowder/Porvli" in conspicuous characters affixed to the outermost receptacle containing such gunpowder.

Rules as to packing for conveyance of gunpowder.

21. The following rules shall be observed in the conveyance of gunpowder:

- (a) gunpowder in quantities not exceeding two kilogrammes shall be conveyed in receptacles of the description mentioned in article 18;
- (b) gunpowder in quantities exceeding two kilogrammes shall be conveyed either in a single package or a double package.

A single package shall be a box, barrel, or other case of such strength, construction and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed, and will not allow the gunpowder to escape. If the gunpowder is conveyed in a double package, the inner package shall be a substantial case, bag, canister or other receptacle made and closed so as to prevent the gunpowder from escaping, and the outer package shall be a box, barrel or other receptacle of wood or metal or

- other solid material, of such strength, construction and character that it will not be broken or accidentally opened or become defective or insecure whilst being conveyed and will not allow the gunpowder to escape;
- (c) the interior of every package shall be kept free from grit and otherwise clean;
 - (d) no other substance shall be put in the same package containing the gunpowder;
 - (e) no iron or steel shall be used in the construction of any such package, unless the same is covered with tin, zinc or other suitable material so as effectually to prevent the exposure of such iron or steel;
 - (f) the amount of gunpowder in any single package, or, if there is a double package, in any one outer package, shall not exceed forty-five kilogrammes;
 - (g) on every outer package there shall be affixed the words "Gunpowder/Porvli" in conspicuous characters.

22. (1) The Minister responsible for the Police may make, and, when made, amend, repeal or re-enact regulations for the control, restriction or prohibition of the importation, manufacture, preparation, storage, keeping, conveyance, handling, distribution and use of explosives, and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, may make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) for the construction, lay-out, materials and internal and external fittings of gunpowder factories, fireworks factories, or other factories, magazines, store or shops, whether ashore or afloat, in which explosives are prepared, kept, or sold, as well as for any other precautions to be observed in such places;
- (b) for the qualifications as to age, health, previous conduct, technical ability, and such other respects as may be prescribed in the regulations, and for the obligations of persons who own or who are employed in or have access to the said factories, magazines, stores or shops, or are the licensees thereof, or who are in any way concerned in the conveyance, manipulation, ignition or setting-off of explosives, including the requirement that any licence granted for the keeping of an explosives factory shall be subject to the taking out, at the expense of the licensee, of a policy of insurance, whether individual or collective, covering every employee and every person having access to the said factory as a voluntary worker against death or permanent disablement arising out of and in the course of his work in a sum of not less than two thousand and three hundred and twenty-nine euros and thirty-seven cents (2,329.37);
- (c) for any incidental and supplementary matters for which the Minister responsible for Police thinks it

Power of Minister responsible for the Police to make regulations.
Substituted by:
XXVII. 1955.3.
Amended by:
L.N. 4 of 1963;
XI. 1977.2;
XLIX. 1981.6;
XIII. 1983.5;
L.N. 407 of 2007.

expedient for the purposes of the regulations to provide.

Cap. 446.
Cap. 9.

(2) Regulations made under this article may provide that, in respect of offences under any one or more regulations or under any one or more classes of regulations, the provisions of the Probation Act, or of article 21 of the Criminal Code shall not apply.

Appointment of committee.
Amended by:
L.N. 46 of 1965;
LVIII. 1974.68.

23. (1) The President of Malta may appoint a committee consisting of three experts to assist the authorities in carrying out the foregoing provisions of this Part.

(2) It shall be lawful for any member of such committee and for any Police officer not inferior in rank to sub-inspector, to enter any of the places referred to in article 5 in order to satisfy himself that the foregoing provisions are being complied with, and also to enter any other place in which the Police have reasonable cause to believe that gunpowder or any other explosive is kept or that gunpowder, explosives or fireworks are manufactured, in contravention of this Ordinance.

Discharge of petards, bombs, etc.

24. (1) No person shall, without a licence from the Police, set fire to or let off petards, bombs, rockets, or other fireworks whatsoever, or fire-balloons, or generally cause any explosion or make any fire which may cause danger, in any place whatsoever.

(2) No person shall, without a licence from the Police, discharge firearms in or in the neighbourhood of any inhabited place, or in any public street or in any harbour.

(3) The issue of the licence mentioned in subarticle (1) shall be subject to the condition that the said operations shall be carried out in an enclosed place, and, on the occasion of festivals or other public gatherings, at such a distance from the crowd as to avoid danger of accidents.

(4) Where an offence against the provisions of subarticle (1) is committed and the offender is not known, the lessee or the occupier of the building in which the offence is committed, or if the building is not inhabited, the person having the management or control of such building, shall be answerable for the offence, provided he could have prevented the commission thereof.

Setting fire to stubble, etc., in fields.

25. (1) No one shall set fire to any stubble in any field at a distance less than ninety-two metres from any house, building, plantation, stack of corn, straw, or forage, or any other deposit of combustible materials.

(2) Any person making any such fire beyond the distance mentioned above, shall take all the necessary precautions for the safety of the property of others, and shall attend personally and with a sufficient number of persons, until the fire is put out.

Use or possession of explosives for fishing purposes.
Added by:
IV. 1920.10.

26. It shall not be lawful for any person, at any time or in any place, to make use of or keep in his possession explosives for fishing purposes.

26A. Any police officer may arrest without warrant any person who has committed, or attempted to commit, or is reasonably suspected by the officer of having committed or attempted to commit, an offence against the provisions of this Ordinance, or of any regulations made thereunder, if he has reasonable ground for believing that that person will abscond unless arrested, or if the name and address of that person are unknown to and cannot be ascertained by him.

Arrest without warrant.
Added by:
VIII. 2008.4.

26B. The Commissioner of Police may, saving the provisions of any other existing law, suspend any licence in the course of any proceedings for an offence against the provisions of this Ordinance.

Suspension of licence.
Added by:
VIII. 2008.4.

PART II

PENAL PROVISIONS

27. Whosoever shall commit an offence against the provisions of article 3 shall, on conviction, be liable to imprisonment for a term from two to five years or to a fine (multa) of not less than five thousand euro (€5,000) and not more than twenty-five thousand euro (€25,000), or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Penalty for introducing, etc., explosives,
Amended by:
XXVII. 1955.4;
XIII. 1983.5;
L.N. 407 of 2007;
VIII. 2008.5.

28. The same punishment shall be awarded to any person who shall knowingly suffer any building of which he is the occupier, or of which he has the control or management, to be used for the storage or manufacture of gunpowder, explosives, or fireworks in contravention of the provisions of this Ordinance.

for suffering building to be used for the storage of explosives,

29. (1) Whosoever, in contravention of the provisions of Part I of this Ordinance shall keep in his house or in any other place, or shall prepare, sell, or offer for sale, or deliver to unauthorized persons, gunpowder or any of the other substances referred to in article 6, shall, on conviction, be liable to imprisonment for a term from six months to two years or to a fine (multa) of not less than fifteen thousand euro (€15,000) and not more than fifty thousand euro (€50,000), or to both such imprisonment and fine.

XLIX. 1981.4.

34. Whosoever shall commit an offence against the provisions of article 26 shall, on conviction, be liable to imprisonment for a term from one to nine years.

PART III

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 35. The Minister responsible for the Police may by order declare that any substance which appears to him to be specially dangerous to life or property by reason of its explosive properties, or of any process in the manufacture thereof being liable to explosion, shall be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of this Ordinance, and the provisions of this Ordinance (subject to such exceptions, limitations, and restrictions as may be specified in the order) shall accordingly extend to such substance in like manner as if it were included in the term "explosive" in this Ordinance.
- Extension of definition of "explosive" to other explosive substances.
Amended by:
L.N. 4 of 1963.
- 36. Any person who carries on any of the following processes, namely, the process of dividing into its component parts or otherwise breaking up or unmaking any explosive, or making fit for use any damaged explosive, or the process of remaking, altering or repairing any explosive, shall be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance as if he manufactured an explosive.
- Persons carrying on certain processes to be deemed manufacturers.
- 37. (1) It shall be lawful for the Minister responsible for the Police from time to time by order to define, for the purposes of this Ordinance, the composition, quality and character of any explosive and to classify explosives.
- Definition and classification of explosives by order of the Minister responsible for the Police.
Amended by:
L.N. 4 of 1963.
- (2) Where the composition, quality or character of any explosive has been so defined by the Minister responsible for the Police, any article alleged to be such explosive which differs from such definition in composition, quality or character, whether by reason of deterioration or otherwise, shall not be deemed, for the purposes of this Ordinance, to be the explosive so defined.
- 38. All regulations or orders made by the Minister responsible for the Police under this Ordinance shall be published by a notice in the Government Gazette, and shall come into operation on the date of such publication or such other date as may be made in such regulations or orders.
- Regulations and orders to be published in Government Gazette.
Substituted by:
XXVII. 1955.8.
Amended by:
XVII. 1961.2;
XXV. 1962.2;
L.N. 4 of 1963;
XLIX. 1981.6.
- 39. (Deleted by VII. 2008.10.)
- Offences to be classed as contraventions.
Amended by:
XL. 1940.4(3);
XLIX. 1981.4.
Cap. 9.
- 40. (1) Where any offence against this Ordinance or of any regulations made thereunder is proved to have been committed, the "corpus delicti", the instruments, including any vehicle or vessel used or intended to be used in the commission of the offence, as well as any substance or thing produced by the offence shall be forfeited unless some person, who has not taken part in the offence, has a lawful claim to such instruments, vehicles, vessel, substances,
- Forfeiture of corpus delicti, etc.
Amended by:
IV. 1920. 13;
XL. 1940.4 (4).
Substituted by:
XXVII. 1955.9.

or things and brings forward such claim within four working days from the day on which the judgment by which the offence is declared to have been committed becomes definitive.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding subarticle or in any other provision of law, in any criminal proceedings against any person for an offence against the provisions of this Ordinance or of any regulations made thereunder, the court, immediately after the reading of the charge or of the Police report or at any time thereafter, if it is satisfied that any explosive connected with the proceedings cannot be preserved for the duration of the proceedings without danger to persons or property, shall order the destruction of any such explosive under such expert supervision as it may deem expedient in the circumstances provided that in any such case the court will take all necessary steps to describe the aforesaid explosive and the state thereof.

Cap. 9.

(3) In the case of any repertus under article 558 of the Criminal Code where the document discovered consists of any explosives and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the provision of the said article regarding the preservation of the explosive cannot in any way be applied without danger to persons or property, the court shall proceed to order the destruction of the explosive with the precautions specified in the preceding subarticle including those relating to the description thereof.

Cancellation of licence.
Added by:
VIII. 2008.11.

40A. On conviction for an offence under this Ordinance, the court may, at the request of the prosecution or on its own motion, cancel any licence held by the offender in respect of any factory, shop or other premises wherein or within the precincts whereof the offence was committed, and, in the case of an offence committed through the use of a vehicle, both the offender's driving licence and any licence held by him in respect of the vehicle to which the offence relates:

Provided that nothing in this article shall be deemed to affect any powers of the Commissioner of Police under any other law to cancel or suspend any licence.

Applicability of the Probation Act.
Added by:
VIII. 2008.11.
Cap. 446.

40B. The provisions of article 24 of the Probation Act concerning the power of the court to order the offender to pay damages shall, mutatis mutandis, also apply whenever a person is sentenced upon conviction for an offence against the provisions of this Ordinance.

Saving for higher punishments under other laws.
Amended by:
XXVII. 1955.10.
Cap. 9.

41. The punishments prescribed by this Ordinance or any regulations made thereunder shall only apply when the fact does not constitute an offence punishable with a higher punishment under the Criminal Code, or any other law; in which case the punishment laid down in that Code or other law shall apply.

- 42. Proceedings for an offence against any regulations made under this Ordinance, in so far as they are not accompanied by an offence against this Ordinance, shall be instituted by the Police in the Court of Magistrates (Malta) when the offence is committed in Malta, and in the Court of Magistrates (Gozo) when the offence is committed in Gozo or Comino.
- Proceedings for offences against this Ordinance.
Amended by:
IV. 1920.14;
XXVII. 1955.10;
VIII. 1990.3;
VIII. 2008.12.
- 43. Saving the provisions of this Ordinance, any damages arising from any offence under the same shall be recoverable by the injured party as a civil debt.
- Damages.
- 43A. Where, in respect of a person found guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, the prosecution declares in the records of the proceedings that such person has helped the Police to apprehend the person or persons who supplied him with the explosives, or the person found guilty as aforesaid proves to the satisfaction of the court that he has so helped the Police, the punishment shall be diminished, as regards imprisonment by one or two degrees, and as regards any pecuniary penalty by one-third and one-half respectively.
- Reduction of punishment.
Added by:
VIII. 2008.13.
- 44. Where a person, who has been convicted of an offence against the provisions of this Ordinance, or of any regulations made thereunder, commits a second like offence, he shall be liable, on conviction, to the punishment for the offence increased by two degrees, and on a third or subsequent conviction, by three degrees.
- Punishment in the case of a second offence.
Amended by:
XXVII. 1955.11.
Substituted by:
VIII. 2008.14.
- 45. In the case of a third or subsequent conviction for a like offence committed by any shop-keeper, vendor, or other person exercising any art, trade, or other calling in virtue of a licence granted by any public authority, if the offence is in connection with the exercise of such trade, art or other calling, the licence shall be withdrawn.
- Third or subsequent conviction for a like offence.
Amended by:
IV. 1920.15.
- 45A. (1) Where an offence has been committed against the provisions of this Ordinance, the court shall, in addition to any other punishment, in its sentence or at any time thereafter, at the request of the prosecution:
- Forfeiture of property.
Added by:
VIII. 2008.15.
- (a) where any immovable property has been used for the manufacture, sale, exposition for sale, or storage of explosives as described in the bill of indictment or in the charge, order the forfeiture in favour of the Government of any real title which the offender holds on such immovable property;
- (b) where the offender is not the absolute owner but holds any other real title on the immovable property, or has a title, other than a real title, in virtue of which he has the control of or a right of access to such property, the court shall order the offender to pay a fine (multa) of not less than ten thousand euro (€10,000) but not exceeding sixty thousand euro (€60,000) as the court shall determine after taking into account the value of the immovable property and the value of the real title thereon, if any, forfeited as aforesaid;
- (c) saving the provisions of the Criminal Code, make an Suspension order.

Added by:
VIII. 2008.15.

45B. (1) Where a person is charged under this Ordinance or under regulations made thereunder, and such person is a person in possession of a licence, permit or authority issued to him by a competent authority in or in connection with the exercise of any art, trade, calling or other occupation and the offence is committed in a place licenced under this Ordinance, or under any other law, the court may make an order, hereinafter referred to as a "suspension order", suspending such licence, permit or authority.

(2) The suspension order shall remain in force for the whole duration of the proceedings until final judgment.

(3) Any person who does any act for the doing of which a licence, permit or authority is required under any law and such act is done when that licence, permit or authority had been suspended by virtue of a suspension order shall be deemed to have so acted without the required licence, permit or authority.

Non-applicability.

Cap. 9.
Cap. 446.

45C. Saving what is provided in article 40B, the provisions of articles 21 and 28A of the Criminal Code and the provisions of the Probation Act shall not be applicable in respect of any person convicted of an offence under this Ordinance.

Compensation.
Added by:
VIII. 2008.15.

45D. On conviction for an offence under the provisions of this Ordinance or of any regulations made thereunder, the court may order the offender to pay to any injured party such sum of money that may be determined by the court in that direction as compensation for any such loss as aforesaid or for any damages or other injury or harm caused to such party by or through the offence.

Power of the court to order removal of nuisance.
Amended by:
XXVII. 1955.11;
XIII. 1983.5;
L.N. 407 of 2007;
VIII. 2008.16.

46. In case of any contravention against the provisions of this Ordinance or of any regulations made thereunder the court, besides awarding punishment, shall order the offender, where the occasion so requires, to remove any nuisance arising from the contravention, or, according to circumstances, to carry out the law within a time, sufficient for the purpose, to be fixed by the court: and if the offender fails to comply with any such order within the time so fixed, he shall be liable to a fine (ammenda) of not less than twenty-five euro (€25) and not more than one hundred euro (€100) for every day during which the nuisance or non-compliance with the law continues after the expiration of the said time.

47. The court may also order that the nuisance be removed, or that the law be carried out, by the Police at the expense of the offender, in which case he may, under a warrant issued by the said court, be made to refund such expense.

Removal of nuisance by Police.

48. (1) Where the offender is, on account of mental disease or other illness, unable to appear in court, or is absent from Malta or has absconded, and the Commissioner of Police certified on oath that it is urgently required that the nuisance caused by the offence be abated, or that the law be otherwise enforced, the court shall order the summons to be served, in either of the first two cases, on the lawful representative, or the person having the custody of the offender, and in the other cases, or if the offender, being insane, is not under the care of any person, on the husband or wife, or on a near relation by consanguinity or affinity of the offender or on the person, if any, entrusted with the management of his property.

Insanity or absence of offender.

(2) In any such case, if the offence is proved, the court shall apply the provisions of article 46 or of article 47; provided that where there be room for the application of any punishment against the offender who is insane or absent, the court shall adjourn the case until he is fit to stand trial or until his return.

49. The provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to the Armed Forces of Malta.

Non-applicability of Ordinance.
